Intimate sponsor dinner to follow
at Café Patachou 49th and Penn

The 2023 Patachou Foundation Speakers Forum features a dynamic conversation with New York Times Bestselling Authors Ashley C. Ford and John Green, moderated by Jane Henegar, executive director, ACLU Indiana, about the impact of banning books, both those they have authored and otherwise.

Indianapolis restaurateur and Founder of The Patachou Foundation, Martha Hoover, coined the phrase Ban Hunger Not Books in summer of 2023, a rallying cry that expresses where communities should be focusing their energy - feeding children, not removing books from classrooms and libraries.

Sponsors are invited to an intimate post-event celebratory dinner. This event benefits The Patachou Foundation's continued mission to solve childhood hunger in Indianapolis.
